Molly Hellerman is the VP of Strategy & Operations at Superhuman. She focuses on translating the company's strategic vision into actionable initiatives that deliver measurable results.

Previously, Molly spent over a decade at Atlassian, playing a key role in the company's rapid growth from 300 to 16,000 employees. As the VP of Strategy, Operations, and Innovation, she drove strategic decisions for the R&D organization, working directly with company leadership to scale innovation across the company.

Throughout her career, Molly has led disruption across diverse industries—from scaling enterprise SaaS operations to building an online metal market in the U.K. to co-founding a nonprofit. She also played professional soccer, developing the strategic mindset and team-building skills she brings to business.

Molly serves as a Fellow to both the United Nations (Alliance of Civilizations) and the British Council (Transatlantic Network 2020). She holds an MBA from Harvard Business School and a BA in Economics and Spanish from Wellesley College.
